The purpose of the process of publishing data on transfers of value (direct and indirect) is to notify healthcare professionals / medical organizations with whom MSD cooperates or has relations, while following certain goals and conditions in accordance with local laws. Consents for individual disclosure have been provided by individual healthcare personnel and representatives of healthcare organizations - such consent has been given to ensure MSD's compliance with applicable local laws. This publication is intended for general access to those users who have access to our website or local platforms, but is not intended for additional processing of employee data. For a complete understanding of the reporting described by us and published on this site, we direct users to the Methodology section, which explains the meaning and content of the transfer of values indicated in the report.
